29. I am going to ask you about the issue of Indian governments and taxes. Individual Indians do not pay state taxes, just as residents of U.S. military bases do not. However, they do pay federal income taxes and are subject to tribal taxation. Indian tribal governments, similar to state and local governments do not pay federal income tax because their revenues are used to provide government services. Having heard this do you agree or disagree with the following statement?

Tribal casinos, which are owned by tribal governments, should not pay taxes because the proceeds go to the tribal governments and are used to fund essential services like education and health care.

1. Agree	52
2. Disagree	38
